SETAR, N.V. inaugurates the People's Choice site for Miss Aruba Universe 2007

On Wednesday evening, June 20, Ms. Susi Maduro of SETAR officially introduced the People's Choice webpage for the Miss Aruba Universe Pageant 2007 on www.setar.aw. Now fans of the annual pageant can cast their vote for their favorite candidate by surfing to the website, looking over the information and various pictures, and then sending an SMS text message to #222.

Full instructions for voting and stats on the ten lovely young women are available online, and voting can take place up until the night of the pageant, Friday, July 13. The announcement of the winner and awarding of a trophy will take place during the pageant, which will take place on the stage of the Palm Beach Ballroom of the Westin Aruba Resort and broadcast live on TeleAruba, the island's telecommunications network.

Who will be the lucky winner of the title and a state-of-the-art cellular telephone? The numbers will decide as devoted followers cast their votes for the candidate of their choice. A continual tally will give an idea of how well each candidate is doing. So if you want your candidate to win, let your fingers do the walking over your cell phone and cast your vote!
